PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Lisa Johnston

Welcome to winter everyone! You may notice a few changes to the GSIS Newsletter this year. The Executive Board voted last year to move from our 6 issue/year format to quarterly to better fill our bulletin with highlights and news and to supplement the electronic listserv. This spring I will also be reviewing the brainstorming ideas that were generated at the GSA meeting in Minneapolis. Our goal was to formulate ways that GSIS could tackle issues pertinent to our members in a more structured way. Thanks to everyone who participated. All GSIS members will have a chance to comment through an e-mail survey later this year.

Some of you may have noticed a downtime of our GSIS website (<http://geoinfo.org>) in the fall. I want to take the opportunity to thank all of the people involved with getting this tricky problem resolved as quickly as possible. Our web site domain registry company required a bit of paperwork to authorize any changes made to the host

VICE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Linda Zellmer

The winter holiday break is almost over, and the rush to prepare for the spring semester is upon us. I am working on updating library guides to prepare for library instruction sessions this spring. Many of us have had an unusually mild winter so far, although this will probably not last for much longer.

After a bit of e-mail discussion, Lisa Johnston, Bob Tolliver and I developed a theme for the GSIS technical session next fall. The theme will be: Geoscience Information: Investing in the Future. As we know, many geoscientists use both recent and older publications. The transition to digital publications means that we may have less control over our collections in the future. Then there is the spatial data, which can be used and updated repeatedly over time. I have given several talks on the need to plan for archiving spatial data, relating the lifespan of spatial data to the lifespan of a mayfly (which hatches, breeds and dies within 24 hours).

Beginning in 2012, the digital GSIS Newsletter will be published quarterly, in March, June, September, and December by the Geoscience Information Society. Subscription is free to GSIS members. The annual non-member subscription rate is $40. Please contact the GSIS Publications Manager for paper copy subscription prices. All correspondence regarding dues, membership status, and address changes should be directed to the GSIS Secretary. GSIS members are encouraged to contribute content for publication. Material for the March issue should be received no later than March 9, 2012. Please send submissions by e-mail to swoger@geneseo.edu.

servers that AGI graciously maintains for our site. Therefore, a big Thank You to Sharon Tahirkheli and Christopher Keane at AGI as well as the many GSIS members who lent their experience and institutional memories with the web site including Kay Johnson, Suzanne T Larsen, Elaine Adams, and Janet Dombrowski.

Finally, another thanks to Janet for all of her hard work and leadership that has gone into the newsletter over the past few years! And a big welcome to Bonnie Swoger who will be taking over as newsletter editor after this issue! Bonnie and Janet will be working together on the next issue to make a smooth transition.

Happy New Year everyone! As a GSIS resolution I encourage you to promote our society to colleagues and those new to the profession for 2012!

Lisa Johnston

GeoMAPP, the Geospatial Multistate Archive and Preservation Partnership, is a group that has been developing policies and procedures on data preservation. They recently posted their final report and a list of Key Findings and Best Practices on their web site (<http://www.geomapp.net/documents.htm>). I will admit that I have not had time to digest the information in the report, but hope to do so soon.

CALL FOR PAPERS

It's time to start considering ideas or projects for submission to be presented at this year's GSA/GSIS Annual Meeting, which will be held November 4 – November 7, 2012 in Charlotte, North Carolina. This year we are planning to have a GSIS oral technical session and a poster session. This year's session titles are:

GSIS Oral Technical Session: "Geoscience Information: Investing in the Future"

GSIS Poster Session: "Don't be a dinosaur: geoscience information in the 21st century"

Although the deadline for online submission of abstracts is not until summer, please start thinking about participating now. As more details concerning abstract deadline, session dates and times, etc. become available I'll share them via Geonet in the weeks and months to come.

If you have questions, please contact Bob Tolliver at rft17@psu.edu.

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT

24th Polar Libraries Colloquy, June 11-14, 2012: Cold Regions: Pivot Points, Focal Points

We hope to see you at the 24th Colloquy in Boulder from June 11-14. The conference theme is Cold Regions: Pivot Points, Focal Points. Scientists, economists, and governments are focused on the evolving role of polar regions in world affairs. Polar libraries are evolving as well. What changes have you noticed in your collections, focus, or administration as global attention pivots around the Poles? The colloquy will feature a number of interesting presentations and panels, a field trip to one of the coldest labs in the world, and an experiment with an “unconference” session (an “unsession”?) to address practical problems in polar libraries.

We will have a web site up early in 2012, but until then we wanted to provide some information on registration fees and accommodations to help you. Please email us with any questions.

Approximate registration fees in U.S. dollars are as follows. There may be slight changes in the amounts as we get closer, but these are in the neighborhood:

Early registration: $300
Regular and on-site registration: $350
Single day - Early registration: $110
Single day - regular on-site registration $135
Guest lunch: $15 per lunch
Guest banquet attendance: $70

Registration includes attendance at the sessions, breaks and lunches each day, a field trip, and the closing banquet at the beautiful Red Lion Inn snuggled in the mountains near Boulder.

The Boulder Inn, <http://boulderinn.com/>, a 15-minute walk from the conference venue on the University of Colorado-Boulder campus, has a block of discounted rooms available. The Boulder Inn has recently renovated its rooms and public spaces; some have views of the mountains. Rates are $104.00 plus tax per night for a king-sized bed and $114.00 plus tax per night for two queen-sized beds. You can make reservations with Ari Rubin by email (ari@boulderinn.com) or telephone (1-800-233-8469); mention the Colloquy to get the special rate. They are accepting reservations for the discounted rate from November 2011 until May 11, 2012.

We are looking into an optional excursion to Rocky Mountain National Park on Friday, June 15.

Stay tuned for more updates as we continue to plan for a great week in beautiful Colorado.

GSIS TREASURER'S 2011 YEAR-END REPORT

The Society's income for 2011 was $13,024.17. Expenses for the year were $10,983.62. Therefore, GSIS had a net increase of $2,040.55.

As of December 31, 2011 the balance in the checking account was $10,735.71 and savings account was $9,670.99. The Society also has three CD's with balances of: General Funds CD $20,222.07, Ansari Best Reference Work Award CD $5,864.29, and Ansari Distinguished Service Award CD $3,526.56. All of these accounts total to $50,019.62.

GSIS's 2011 ending balance of $50,019.62 minus the beginning balance of $47,979.07 equals $2,040.55, which agrees with the net increase tallied on the income and expense spreadsheets.

Income from sponsorships for the 2011 conference paid for the conference meetings. GSIS appreciates the work of the GSIS Vice President, Lisa Johnston, for assembling the vendor sponsorship.

It should be noted that, once again, there was very little expense generated by the GSIS officers and committee chairs.

Respectfully Submitted,

Angelique Jenks-Brown
GSIS Treasurer

The report begins on page 6.

GEOSCIENCE JOURNAL PRICES

Compiled by Michael Mark Noga

The attached table is a compilation of geoscience journal prices that were gathered by December 2011. Prices come from invoices, serial vendor databases, publisher's Web sites, and journal issues. Prices vary depending on the subscription sources and payment date, especially for journals which are not priced in US dollars. Each journal price history comes from a consistent source as much as possible.

Prices may refer to print subscriptions, print and electronic subscriptions, online-only subscriptions, or journal package subscriptions. The goal is to maintain a consistent price history for each title.

Journals were included in this list if they meet two criteria: 1) the subject fits broadly in the geosciences; and 2) sufficient price data are available. The latest title of each journal is used.

The 2010, 2011, and 2012 subscription prices and the % price changes for 283 journals are included in the table. The pool price change (6%) represents the increase in funds needed to retain this particular set of journals.

There is so much variability in journal pricing now that the table should just be used to look at trends, not to gauge specific prices for a library.

The report begins on page 8.

The GSIS Newsletter will be published quarterly beginning with the March 2012 issue. Please send submissions via e-mail to Bonnie Swoger, the new Editor, by March 9, 2012. swoger@geneseo.edu

PUBLICATIONS IN STOCK
January 2012

Geoscience Information Society. Proceedings. ISSN 0072-1409

Each volume has also a distinctive title and ISBN. $45.00 each; standing orders are $45.00/year.
Backlist in stock:

- v.40, 2009. Navigating the Geoscience Information Landscape: Pathways to Success. Ed. Jody Bales Foote [978-0-934485-43-2]
- v. 39, 2008. Libraries in Transformation: Exploring Topics of Changing Practices and New Technologies. Ed. Lisa Johnston [978-0-934485-67-8]
- v. 38, 2007. Geoscience Information: Making the Earth Sciences Accessible for Everyone. Ed. Claudette Cloutier [978-0-934485-42-5]
- v. 37, 2006. Geoscience Information: Keys to Discovery. Ed. Patricia B. Yocum [978-0-934485-68-5]
- v. 36, 2005. Collaboration for the Dissemination of Geologic Information Among Colleagues. Ed. by Adonna Fleming [0-934485-38-0]
- v. 35, 2004. Geoinformatics. Ed. By Linda R. Musser [0934485-37-2]
- v. 34, 2003. Geoscience information Horizons: Challenges, choices, and decisions. Ed. Lura E. Joseph.. [0-934485-36-4]
- v. 33, 2002. New Heights in Geoscience Information: Access and Technology. Ed Lisa G. Dunn. [0-934485-35-0]
- v. 32, 2001. Geoscience Information: A Dynamic Odyssey. Ed. Michael Mark Noga. [0-934485-34-80]
- v. 31, 2000. Electronic Information Summit: New Developments and their Impacts. Ed. Sharon N. Tahirkheli. [0-934485-33-X]
- v.30, 1999. Communication Divides: Perspectives on Supporting Information Bridges in the Geosciences. Ed. Lois Heiser. [0-934485-32-1]
- v.29, 1998. Accreting the Continent's Collections. Eds. Charlotte R.M. Derksen and Connie J. Manson. [ISBN 0-934485-31-3]
- v.28, 1997. The Costs and Values of Geoscience Information. Ed. Connie J. Manson. [0-934485-29-1]
- v.27, 1996. Expanding Boundaries: Geoscience Information for Earth System Science. Ed. Barbara J. DeFelice. [0-934485-23-2]
- v.26, 1995. Crossing the Bridge to the Future: Managing Geoscience Information in the Next Decade. Ed. Nancy L. Blair. [0-934485-26-7]

Volumes prior to 1995 are out-of-print. A complete list of the titles can be found here: <http://www.geoinfo.org/proceedings.html>. GISIS Proceedings are indexed and searchable in GEOREF.

Proceedings of the International Geoscience Information Conferences

- Science editing and information Management: Proceedings of the Second International AESE/CBE/EASE Joint Meeting, Sixth International Conference on Geoscience Information and Thirty-second Annual Meeting, Association of Earth Science Editors held September 10 through 14, 1998 Washington, D. C. Ed. Connie J. Manson [0-934485-30-5] $25.00
- GeoInfo V: Proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Geoscience Information: 20-23 June, 1994, Prague, Czech Republic. Ed. Jiri Hruska [0-934485-27-5] $45.00 (2 vols)

Also still available:

Directory of Geoscience Libraries, North America. Compiled by Connie J. Manson and Ian D. Gordon, co-chairs. 5th ed: Geoscience Information Society, 1997. $35.00

Geoscience Information Society. GIS Newsletter. ISSN 0046-5801

Digital format; published bi-monthly; calendar year subscriptions only. $40.00. (Paper subscription prices: $40.00 USA & Canada, $45.00 International). Back issues available, please contact Publications Manager for availability of specific issues. Non-member access to archives: <http://www.geoinfo.org/newsletter.html>

Ordering GSIS Publications

- All orders (except standing orders for Proceedings) must be prepaid in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. bank.
- Checks must be made payable to: Geoscience Information Society or GSIS.
- Prices include Library Rate (uninsured) or International Surface Mail (uninsured).
- For First Class handling, please add $5.00 to your prepayment for each title ordered.

E-mail orders to Publications Manager (clement@fas.harvard.edu) or mail orders to either address:
